Prayer diary.

Sunday.

Pray for your local school; it's head, staff, governors, parents and, of course, pupils.

Monday.

CST operates across the UK in five regions. Look at the map to see who the other schools are in your area and pray for them.

Tuesday.

Pray for one other CST school in the nation; perhaps a different one each week.

Wednesday.

Please pray today for the development of Biblically based teacher training and inspection in our schools. Pray also for the research that is demonstrating the success of our schools.

Thursday.

Please pray for all other Christians working in the area of education. May God bless their work and make them even more effective.

Friday.

Pray for Christian educators across Europe – that The Lord will strengthen and encourage them.

Saturday.

Pray for all children being educated in our nation, that they will be given the opportunity to know God and discover His destiny for them.

Who are The Christian Schools' Trust?

CST has existed for about 20 years. Its member schools were started in different ways by different groups of people but with a common vision, to put God back into His rightful place in the process of education. Now, these highly successful schools are seeing how their work is bringing change, not only to the families and pupils involved but also to the wider educational world.

What is CST for?

- We help lay a foundation of Biblical truth in the area of education.
- We develop networks to support and strengthen Christian schools of quality.
- We aim to serve others by promoting Christian education across the UK and into other nations.

What does CST do?

- We aim to promote a distinctively Christian approach to schooling.
- We train and develop good quality teachers and head teachers.
- We support new and established schools in improving and maintaining standards.
- We develop resources for schools and other educators.
- We demonstrate and celebrate success and good practice through research.
- We never forget that we are serving God in our nation through educating children.

Currently we are...

- Establishing a BA in Education and Applied Theology.
- Establishing a Faith Schools Inspectorate.
- Engaged in research projects.
- Developing a better web resource.

How can you help CST?

We are looking for 'Friends of CST' who will join with us in the work of increasing the influence of God's Kingdom in education.

Perhaps you are a past pupil, a current parent or governor, member of staff, or in a church connected with a school? If so, you will already have benefitted from the work of CST in conjunction with that school. All supporters are welcome to join with us in this task.

The projects that we are currently working on will benefit many people across the educational spectrum in our nation but we need to be able to staff and resource these to bring them to fruition.

'Friends of CST' is a way that you can pray for the development of this work, give financial support and receive news of how things are progressing through 'Wingspan', our termly newsletter. All we ask for is a minimum donation of £20 per year, preferably payable by standing order and, if you are a tax payer, given as gift aid (see form overleaf). This small amount may not seem as if it will go very far but as usual, if enough people work together in small ways, we can make a huge difference.
